

PARIS Batucada

THE ORIGINAL

With each jewel Batucada radiates love for Brazil, land of the sublime where the worship of all things beautiful is submerged in sensuality.

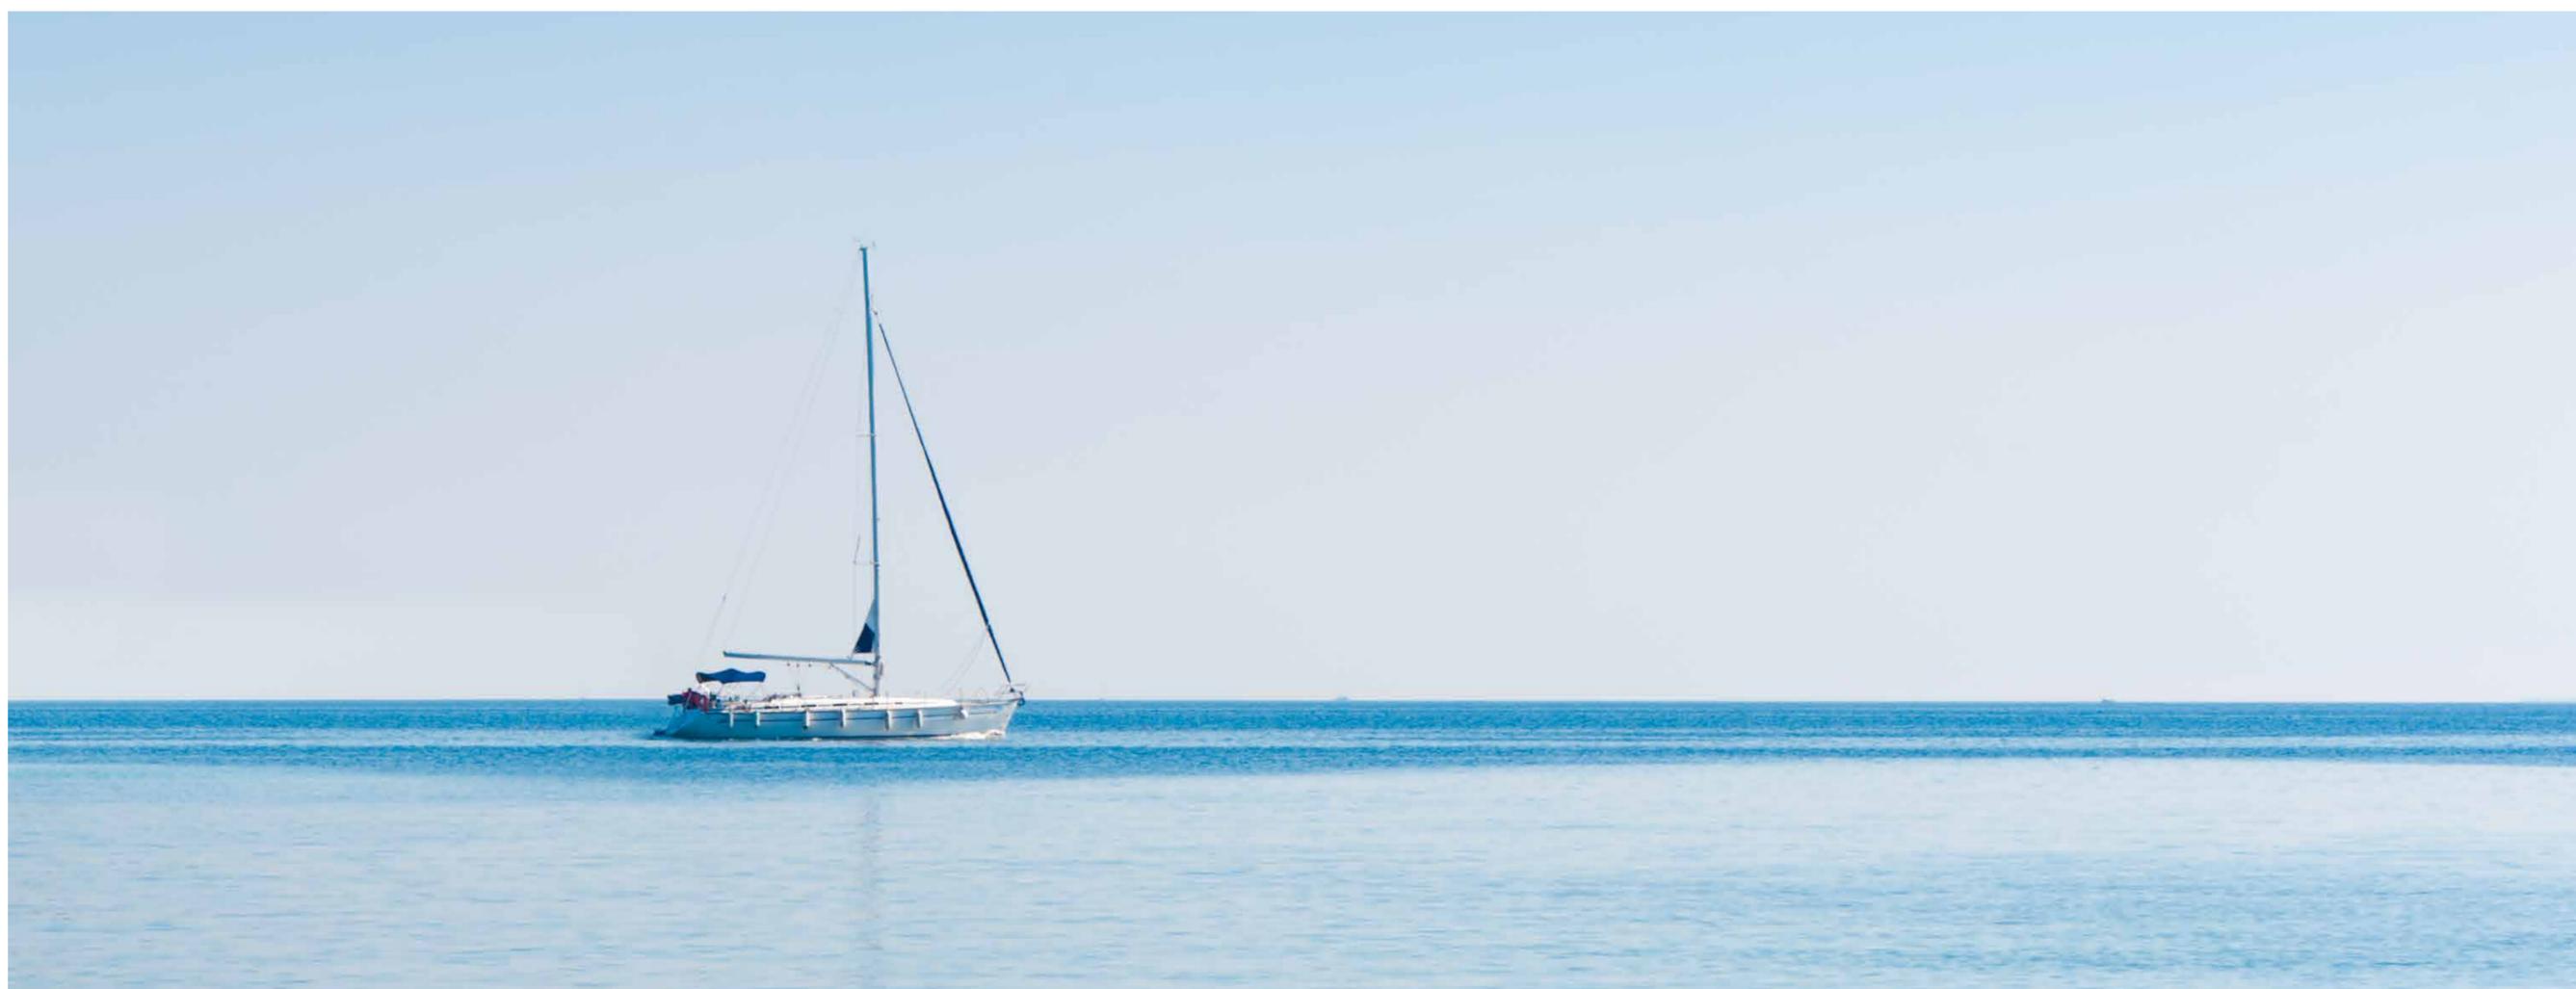

A lightness of breath sparks the urge to move, to dance, to live freely whilst celebrating respect for the environment.

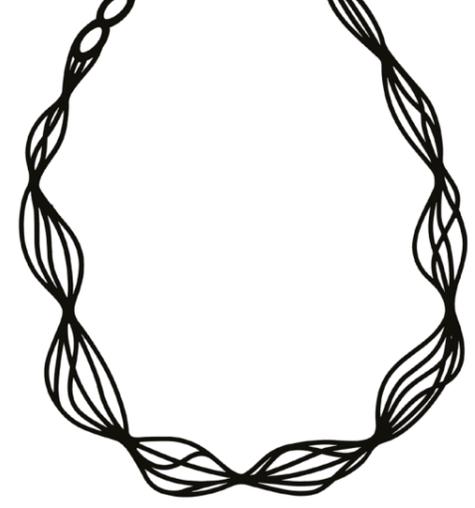

A harmony between Brazilian seduction and the elegance of French Design.

Story & Creator

Founded in 2005 by Loick Leblond, a Frenchman from Perros-Guirec, Batucada represents the culmination of French design & sophistication, and the exuberance of Brazilian beach culture. The passion that underscores the tones of the Batucada “beat” is captured by the sensual character of our jewelry: the convergence of the sublime with edgy creativity.

Natural rubber & Manufacturing

The Batucada brand has become synonymous with the soft & silky feel of rubber-like accessories that are both eco-friendly and produced with a socially responsible mindset. Our signature materials are composed of vegetable-based product (80%) and certified sustainable plasticizers (20%). Designed in France by a diverse community of artists and Handcrafted by a dedicated team, our products are 100% recyclable and our packaging is made from 100% recycled paper. Our materials are nickel-free, silicone-free, latex-free, phthalate-free, lead-free and petroleum-free.

International Recognition

Batucada has won international acclaim with collections that have widespread appeal and an undeniable charm. The Brand is distributed in over 25 countries across the globe and is sold online, in concept stores, department stores, museum gift stores and beyond. Most recently in the USA, Batucada was awarded the 2016 Buyer’s Choice by the MSA (Museum Store Association). Batucada continues to exceed the boundaries of conventional design as a leading brand in its category.. . . the beat goes on.
